EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

As a proud Perris Union High School graduate and "Panther Mascot", a graduate of UCR (B.A. Psychology), CSUSB (M.A. Special Education), I am a product of the local Inland Empire public education system, thus proving that public education works. Consequently, I have not moved out of the area but instead given my talents, abilities and skills to the students of the Perris Valley.

As a result of high academic standards, the Perris Elementary Schools and the students have been on a successful scholastic spiral upward. They are certainly being readied to become the next future Perris Valley community leaders, professionals, and parents. I began working for the Perris School District in 1988 as a Bus Driver. In 1998 the bussing program was disbanded; I then became a custodian/gardener where I continued to maintain good work ethics and moral behavior. After serving 15 years, I retired in 2004.

Presently, I'm an active member of "PACE" (Perris Alliance for Community Empowerment) where as an organization we work together to ensure that elected officials represent the diversity and needs of working families in our City.
