JOHN BRANDRIF AGE: 55
OCCUPATION: Delivery Service Professional – Commissioner
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Ward 7 Neighbors,

Having spent most of my adult life in service to others in both my career, 29 years at UPS, and to Community organizations I have a unique perspective into people's expectations of City Leaders. I have a combined 18 years of service on six different Commissions, Boards and Community groups representing Ward 7. I believe these leadership roles qualify me to be your City Council Representative.

What I bring to this office is a new, fresh and dynamic approach to serving my constituents: I will always be accessible and I commit to serving my full term without seeking another office and I will always listen.

I have lived and raised my family in this Ward continuously since 1994; my residency is not politically motivated. I have a vested interest in the quality of life for everyone in our City.

When I am elected as your Council Representative I will work tirelessly to strengthen ethics, transparency, accountability and integrity. This should be self evident however, I promise to follow the City Charter, the Municipal Code of Riverside and all State and Federal laws.

I respectfully request your Vote.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR CITY COUNCIL MEMBER,
CITY OF RIVERSIDE, WARD 7

STEVE ADAMS AGE: 58
OCCUPATION: Councilman - Retired Policeman
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

I first moved to Riverside in 1958 and am a product of its public schools. My wife and I are proud residents of La Sierra. We have three daughters.

For 15 years I served the people of Riverside as a Police Officer.

It's been my honor these past few years to serve as your City Councilman. Working together we've achieved much.

More of our tax dollars are being invested in our community than ever before. This has repaved streets, added sidewalks, renovated parks, and is making railroad crossings safer and quieter.

Our area once had Riverside's highest crime rates - now they're one of the lowest.

The City's budget is balanced and has a reserve fund of $43 million.

Cutting back at City Hall during the recession, I refused to take a pay raise.

I voted to create Riverside's Code of Ethics to hold City officials accountable.

If re-elected I will fight to:

Bring good paying jobs to Riverside.

Keep residents and families safe.

Support our children and schools.

Control city spending and fight new taxes.

Ensure City Hall is accountable to the people.

I'd be honored to have your vote and continue serving you on the City Council.
