CITY COUNCIL MEMBER, SHORT TERM
CITY OF MENIFEE, DISTRICT 3

STU R. BLAZE

AGE: 58

OCCUPATION: Businessman
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

I moved to Menifee in 2000 and immediately fell in love with it. I worked for private and public organizations as a Director of Operations managing up to 600 people and 15 million dollars in yearly revenues.

My goal running for City Council is to preserve and improve the quality of life for our citizens by focusing on high quality, sustainable growth and development, traffic issues and locally owned businesses that serve you.

We have raised three children here over the past 16yrs. They attended various schools in the Menifee Union School District. Our son has recently returned from serving in the Army in Afghanistan.

I am a member of the Menifee Rotary Club and have participated in Habitat for Humanity, Senior Career Day for Paloma & Heritage High Schools, Menifee Motor Madness, and the Mayors Ball. I am a Board Member of Mariposa Home Owners and was asked by the Superintendent of MUSD to sit on a committee for the Unification of Menifee Schools.

I owned a successful business here and now work for a new company creating franchise opportunities.

It would be an honor to serve you on the City Council and I respectfully ask for your vote.

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

A degree in Political Science, K-12th grade Ryan Teaching Credential, coach, 33 successful years working in corporate America, married/ father/grandfather and living the last ten years in Menifee's District 3. Watching Menifee's growth these last ten years has been exciting and interesting but at the same time has created increased concerns. We are seeing high levels of robberies, assaults, and auto thefts. These crimes, usually associated with more urban cities, are creeping into Menifee and we need a strategy to curb this intrusion. The demographics are changing as the city has an average age of 37 and many have young families again safety is a concern. The city council can enact policies and community focused events to focus on this area. Secondly, Menifee needs more local business whether it is light industry or other corporate locations to supply more jobs for its citizens and to help curb potential rise in taxes. Overall goal is to bring a better community focus to the council in an effort to raise Menifee's status as a safe and prosperous location for all whether retired or just starting a new family.
