Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act, which took effect January 1, 2011, requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Voter-nominated offices are state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate, regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes—regardless of party preference—move on to the general election regardless of vote totals. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (50 percent + 1), a general election still must be held. Even if there are only two candidates for an office in the open primary, a general election for that office is still required.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for local offices.

California law requires that the following information be printed in this pamphlet.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In the county sample ballot booklet, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan State Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

Redistricting

New electoral district boundaries are drawn every 10 years in order to equalize district populations. Boundaries for the congressional, state legislative, and county supervisorial districts are now different. Boundary changes also apply to any city, school district, or special district that votes by trustee areas or divisions. To see the new district maps, visit the Registrar of Voters website at www.voteinfo.net.

HOW TO MARK YOUR PAPER BALLOT

Please refer to the following instructions on how to properly complete your official ballot:

- ▶ Connect the head and tail of the arrow that points to your choice like the example provided.
- ▶ Check both front and back of ballot for voting contests.
- ▶ Use a black ball point pen. Do not use felt tip, red or gel ink.
- ▶ One line connecting the arrow is preferred.
- ▶ Vote for no more than the number of votes allowed in each contest (e.g. vote for one, vote for no more than two, etc.).
- ▶ Please keep the vote-by-mail ballot folded the same way you received it.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

STEVE ADAMS, Republican

AGE: 61

OCCUPATION: Councilman / Retired Policeman
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

As a Riverside resident since 1958, a retired Riverside Police Officer, a small business owner, and 3rd term Riverside City Councilman, I am uniquely aware of the issues facing the residents of the 41st District.

Over-regulation from Congress and Washington politicians is restraining economic growth, stifling job creation hurting the residents of the 41st. We need and deserve better than single issue politicians with extreme agendas.

As a three-term Councilman, I've been intricately involved in the betterment of my community. I was successful in helping make Riverside #1 in the Nation in new jobs and top 8 places to be. I was part of the team that brought in the UC Riverside Medical School, bringing quality jobs and millions of dollars to our economy. I will continue to do this for the 41st District.

An uncontrolled border has negatively impacted our lives; jobs, economy, education, crime, hospitals and more. We must stop the human trafficking, victimizing children and women and the flow of drugs and criminals into our cities. The first step is a secure and safe boarder for legal entry. I will go to Congress to help broker real solutions and break the gridlock and partisanship that has plagued this country for the past six years.

Our region has experienced tremendous growth over the years, straining our infrastructure and roadways. Serving on local, state and national transportation committees I know the issues and offer real solutions that I will take to Washington and fight for our region.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

MARK TAKANO, Democratic

AGE: 53

OCCUPATION: United States Representative / Teacher
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Dear Neighbor,

Congress is broken, and I have used my first term in office fighting for the commonsense reforms we all know it desperately needs.

As your Representative, I have fought for the middle class, worked to create good paying jobs in the Inland Empire, and stood up to the leaders of both parties to protect Social Security and Medicare.

Over the past two years, my office has secured more than $1 million in benefits owed to veterans and held several town hall meetings to understand local priorities. I introduced legislation to strengthen and improve school curriculum, increase business participation in job training programs, make it easier for veterans to go back to school, and support the creation of advanced manufacturing jobs.

I will continue to fight for the middle class by supporting job-creating local investments like the UC Riverside Medical School and I'll stand up against tax cuts for billionaires and corporations that want to ship American jobs overseas.

Prior to being elected to the House of Representatives, I dedicated my life to public service as a high school teacher and Riverside Community College Trustee. Those roles prepared me to be an effective advocate for local schools, businesses, veterans, seniors, and middle class families.

I am proud to have the support of local leaders from throughout Riverside, Moreno Valley, Jurupa Valley, and Perris.

I respectfully ask for your vote on November 4th so we can continue to grow our economy and fix Congress.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
42ND ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

CHAD MAYES, Republican
OCCUPATION: Chief of Staff
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

AGE: 37

The past few months have been some of the most satisfying times of my life in public service.

I have become reacquainted with old friends and have had the chance to meet and visit with neighbors from across our district and from all political parties. Together, we've discussed the issues facing California and shared our hopes for our region. I can say without hesitation that I've listened and learned from each one of those conversations.

Like many, I'm frustrated with Sacramento's lack of progress on job creation, better schools, and safe communities - important priorities that have fallen victim to partisan politics.

With a servant's heart, I'll work to end partisan bickering in Sacramento. I'll work with both Democrats and Republicans to make government accountable, protect taxpayers by defending Proposition 13, strengthen our economy, and provide the outstanding education our children deserve.

With your trust, I'm prepared to get the job done.

I'm honored to have earned the endorsement of Congressman Paul Cook, every Member of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors, the Riverside County Sheriffs' Association, CAL FIRE, the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association, and dozens of local elected officials. To be honest, the support that matters most is yours.

As you consider whom to support, please know that I would be honored to have your vote. If you have questions about where I stand on the issues, call me at (760) 413-9048 or email me at Chad@ChadMayes.com and I'll respond personally.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
42ND ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

KARALEE HARGROVE, Democratic
OCCUPATION: School Board Trustee
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

AGE: 32

California faces challenges. Challenges expose opportunities. My background and experience qualifies me to nurture California's opportunities.

As a Morongo Unified School Board Trustee I know that vigorous education is essential to cultivating critical thinking skills and creativity. Creative minds incubate innovative solutions for California's challenges.

Every student need not attend college. In addition to math and science, students need opportunities to learn skilled trades, arts, and music. Preschools significantly jump-start good learning skills.

Independent and innovative thinking, rather than political stubbornness, fosters representative government. Some things are best solved on a large coordinated scale, others locally. I reach out to others who consider the impact on whole communities not just on legislation benefiting narrow special interests. Ours is a community of diverse needs.

I will listen, learn, and act, by initiating and supporting State policies that reflect the realistic aspirations of the 42nd Assembly district.

As a wife, mother of five children, school board member, and student I relate to everyday real life challenges. My school board record reflects my dedication to excellence.

As an elected woman, the gender gap could narrow in the legislature. This is good for truly representative government.

I ask for your vote so we all win.
