Working to achieve outstanding service and leadership will be my goal. I have been instrumental in bringing a new look to the District and making it a place we are proud to send our children. Getting our kids ready for their future is my number one priority.

My wife and I moved to Perris in 1992, where we have raised our three children. My twin boys are attached an Army Intelligence unit, my daughter will be attending Cal State San Bernardino in the fall. Perris turned out to be the best move for my family and I am proud to say my children came through the Perris school system with honors.

I appreciate your vote and look forward to serving you in the future.
