REGISTRAR OF VOTERS
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

Dear Voter:

November 6, 2012 is Election Day. Your ballot contains contests for Federal, State, and local offices as well as statewide propositions and local measures. This Sample Ballot and Information Pamphlet provides ballot marking instructions, polling place hours, candidate and measure information, and other election details that are important for you to review before you vote. You may mark your selections on your Sample Ballot and take it with you to the polls for easy reference.

Did you know that Vote-by-Mail ballots received in the Registrar of Voters office before Election Day are the first ballots counted on Election Night? You will find an application to receive a Vote-by-Mail Ballot on the back cover of this pamphlet.

Voting early is another great option. You may vote early at the Registrar of Voters office Monday through Friday beginning October 9, and at participating Malls in Riverside County on October 26 through October 28.

There is still time to volunteer to be a poll worker. We need Polling Officers to work at the polls on Election Day and we are eager to train you to assist voters with our proudest legacy – the right to vote.

You can learn more about voting by mail, voting early or training to be a poll worker by reviewing this pamphlet or by visiting www.voteinfo.net or by calling (800) 773-VOTE (8683).

The Registrar of Voters team is here to serve you. Please contact us anytime, so we can help make your voting experience a positive one. Thank you for participating in this election -- your vote counts!

Sincerely,

Kari Verjil

Elections in California

NEW LAW
Took Effect
January 1, 2011

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act, which took effect January 1, 2011, requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices are state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

Only the two candidates receiving the most votes – regardless of party preference – move on to the general election regardless of vote totals.

Write-in candidates for voter-nominated offices can only run in the primary election. However, a write-in candidate can only move on to the general election if the candidate is one of the top two vote-getters in the primary election. Additionally, there is no independent nomination process for a general election.

California's new open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President, county central committee, or local offices.

California law requires that the following information be printed in this pamphlet.

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In this sample ballot booklet, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan State Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may NOT designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

Redistricting

New electoral district boundaries are drawn every 10 years in order to equalize district populations. Boundaries for the congressional, state legislative, and county supervisorial districts are now different. Boundary changes also apply to any city, school district, or special district that votes by trustee areas or divisions. To see the new district maps, visit the Registrar of Voters website at www.voteinfo.net.

TAX TREATMENT FOR MULTISTATE BUSINESSES. CLEAN ENERGY AND ENERGY EFFICIENCY FUNDING. INITIATIVE STATUTE. Requires multistate businesses to pay income taxes based on percentage of their sales in California. Dedicates revenues for five years to clean/efficient energy projects. Fiscal Impact: Increased state revenues of $1 billion annually, with half of the revenues over the next five years spent on energy efficiency projects. Of the remaining revenues, a significant portion likely would be spent on schools.

TRATAMIENTO TRIBUTARIO PARA EMPRESAS MULTIESTATALES. FINANCIAMIENTO PARA ENERGÍA LIMPIA Y EFICIENCIA ENERGÉTICA. Dedicar ingresos durante cinco años a proyectos de energía limpia/eficiente. Impacto fiscal: Aumenta las recaudaciones estatales en $1000 millones anualmente. La mitad de dichas recaudaciones se gastarán en los próximos cinco años en proyectos de eficiencia energética. REDISTRICTING. STATE SENATE DISTRICTS. REFERENDUM. A “Yes” vote approves, and a “No” vote rejects, new State Senate districts drawn by the Citizens Redistricting Commission. If rejected, districts will be adjusted by officials supervised by the California Supreme Court. Rejecting the referendum would result in a one-time cost of about $1 million to the state and counties.

REDISTRIBUCIÓN DE DISTRITOS. DISTRITOS DEL SENADO ESTATAL. REFERENDO. Un voto “Sí” aprueba y un voto “No” rechaza los nuevos distritos del Senado estatal establecidos por la Comisión Ciudadana de Redistribución de Distritos. Si se rechaza, los distritos serán establecidos por funcionarios, supervisados por la Corte Suprema de California. Impacto fiscal: Aprobar el referendo no tendría ningún impacto fiscal sobre los gobiernos estatal y locales. Rechazar el referendo resultaría en un costo único para el estado y los condados de alrededor de $1 millón.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

MARK TAKANO, Democratic AGE: 51
OCCUPATION: Public School Teacher / Community College Trustee
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Dear Friend,

It's clear to anyone paying attention that Congress is broken.

Big oil companies, powerful insurance companies and special interest lobbyists have rigged the system, and our middle class is suffering for it. Congress has failed to renew tax cuts for middle class families or pass a single bill to help put struggling Americans back to work.

This is unacceptable.

As a lifelong resident of Riverside County, I'm tired of the partisan gridlock that delivers nothing to our community but empty promises.

We need jobs, jobs and more jobs. We need to reduce taxes for middle class families and provide tax credits to local small businesses for innovation and job creation. We also must stop handing out tax breaks to big corporations that ship jobs overseas.

I have dedicated my life to public service as a high school teacher and Riverside Community College Trustee. If you send me to Washington, I will fight for Riverside County families, our children, our veterans and especially our senior citizens by protecting Social Security and Medicare.

That's why I'm proud to be the only candidate endorsed by the National Committee to Protect Social Security and Medicare. I'm also proud to be endorsed by classroom teachers, nurses and many local leaders.

As your Congressman, I will work across party lines to fight for the middle class, protect Social Security and Medicare and bring good paying jobs to the Inland Empire. I respectfully ask for your vote.

Sincerely,

Mark Takano

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

JOHN F. TAVAGLIONE, Republican AGE: 64
OCCUPATION: Business Owner / County Supervisor
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

As County Supervisor, I'm working to create new, good-paying jobs in education, health care and construction at UC Riverside by building a new medical school.

In Congress, I'll continue my efforts to revive a stagnant economy.

I'll work across party lines to provide tax incentives for employers who hire new workers, INVEST IN EDUCATION, and simplify the tax code so small businesses can focus on CREATING JOBS.

I'll fight to reduce the $15.5 trillion national debt and stop irresponsible spending that has done little to improve the economy.

As county supervisor, I saved millions of dollars by requiring county offices to buy used furniture, reduce travel costs and make prisoners pay for the cost of keeping themselves in jail.

In Congress, I'll continue my FIGHT AGAINST GOVERNMENT WASTE.

I'll take action to prevent future bailouts and hold Wall Street accountable for its mistakes.

As a private citizen, I've helped hundreds of young people get through college by raising millions of dollars for scholarships.

In Congress, I'll fight to keep college tuition rates down and ensure public schools have the funding they need to provide a quality education.

America must also keep its promise to retirees and veterans by PROTECTING MEDICARE and strengthening Social Security programs.

America's best days should be ahead of us.

But, we need to stop the partisan bickering and pull together to make America work better.

Mayor Ron Loveridge, Riverside Firefighters Association and National Latino Police Officers Association support my campaign. I hope you do too.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
60TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

ERIC LINDER, Republican
OCCUPATION: Corona Business Owner
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

California's government is a mess.

Partisan fighting has replaced getting things done for California.

And because of that, we find ourselves in the mess we're in.

Instead of cutting waste and getting rid of bloated bureaucracies in Sacramento, funding for education has been cut, and our schools have been forced to increase class sizes.

Instead of cutting frivolous spending, the Legislature's only answer has been to seek higher taxes.

Instead of addressing over-crowded prisons, the Legislature has done nothing, resulting in dangerous felons being released back into our neighborhoods.

And instead of trying to fix a broken pension system, the politicians in Sacramento just watch our debt grow.

All of these problems need solutions. But to solve them, we need people who are actually interested in getting things done - people who bring new solutions.

I am a small business owner, not a career politician.

I haven't spent my life running for office over and over again.

I've been raising a family and growing my business.

And in my business, we operate under some pretty simple rules that the Legislature in Sacramento would do well to follow:

-Don't spend more than you take in.

-Work on small problems before they become big ones.

-Getting things done is more important than talking about getting them done.

I'm running for State Assembly to bring some common sense to Sacramento.

If you agree that we need more business owners and less career politicians in the State Assembly, I am asking for your support.

My wife Pat and I have lived in Riverside for 48 years. We have three children. They were educated in Alvord Unified Schools, Riverside Community College, California State University, San Bernardino and the University of California, Riverside. One is Vice Principal and two are teachers.

I decided to run for California Assembly District 60 to help bring economic prosperity, self reliance, and improve the standard of living and quality of life. Ours is a newly reapportioned Assembly District, created as a result of the 2010 census. There is no incumbent. This is a new beginning. I am looking forward to sharing with you my vision for a new and revitalized Assembly District. I am also very interested in the views of citizens, businessman, private and public organizations across our district.

We need everyone to participate. I am offering my candidacy as a bridge between all the cities, the private and political interests in our region. I want to be your voice in Sacramento to loudly and firmly express your interests, concerns and work to promote and resolve them.

I NEED YOUR HELP TO ACHIEVE OUR GOALS. TOGETHER THERE IS MUCH WE CAN ACCOMPLISH.

Sincerely,

José Luis Pérez

Amid challenging economic times, the Board needs experienced leaders equipped to make the right decisions to ensure an accessible education with the greatest possible number of classes and needed occupational opportunities. Now more than ever, helping produce a skilled work force is vital to the health of our local economy.

I am a Riverside native, UC Riverside graduate, retired Peace Officer and have served on the RCCD board since 1995. Additionally, my election to the state and national community college boards, gives our community a voice never before heard at the national level.
