Elections in California

NEW LAW
Took Effect
January 1, 2011

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act, which took effect January 1, 2011, requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices are state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

Only the two candidates receiving the most votes – regardless of party preference – move on to the general election regardless of vote totals.

Write-in candidates for voter-nominated offices can only run in the primary election. However, a write-in candidate can only move on to the general election if the candidate is one of the top two vote-getters in the primary election. Additionally, there is no independent nomination process for a general election.

California's new open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President, county central committee, or local offices.

California law requires that the following information be printed in this pamphlet.

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In this sample ballot booklet, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan State Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may NOT designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

Redistricting

New electoral district boundaries are drawn every 10 years in order to equalize district populations. Boundaries for the congressional, state legislative, and county supervisorial districts are now different. Boundary changes also apply to any city, school district, or special district that votes by trustee areas or divisions. To see the new district maps, visit the Registrar of Voters website at www.voteinfo.net.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

MARK TAKANO, Democratic AGE: 51
OCCUPATION: Public School Teacher / Community College Trustee
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Dear Friend,

It's clear to anyone paying attention that Congress is broken.

Big oil companies, powerful insurance companies and special interest lobbyists have rigged the system, and our middle class is suffering for it. Congress has failed to renew tax cuts for middle class families or pass a single bill to help put struggling Americans back to work.

This is unacceptable.

As a lifelong resident of Riverside County, I'm tired of the partisan gridlock that delivers nothing to our community but empty promises.

We need jobs, jobs and more jobs. We need to reduce taxes for middle class families and provide tax credits to local small businesses for innovation and job creation. We also must stop handing out tax breaks to big corporations that ship jobs overseas.

I have dedicated my life to public service as a high school teacher and Riverside Community College Trustee. If you send me to Washington, I will fight for Riverside County families, our children, our veterans and especially our senior citizens by protecting Social Security and Medicare.

That's why I'm proud to be the only candidate endorsed by the National Committee to Protect Social Security and Medicare. I'm also proud to be endorsed by classroom teachers, nurses and many local leaders.

As your Congressman, I will work across party lines to fight for the middle class, protect Social Security and Medicare and bring good paying jobs to the Inland Empire. I respectfully ask for your vote.

Sincerely,

Mark Takano

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

JOHN F. TAVAGLIONE, Republican AGE: 64
OCCUPATION: Business Owner / County Supervisor
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

As County Supervisor, I'm working to create new, good-paying jobs in education, health care and construction at UC Riverside by building a new medical school.

In Congress, I'll continue my efforts to revive a stagnant economy.

I'll work across party lines to provide tax incentives for employers who hire new workers, INVEST IN EDUCATION, and simplify the tax code so small businesses can focus on CREATING JOBS.

I'll fight to reduce the $15.5 trillion national debt and stop irresponsible spending that has done little to improve the economy.

As county supervisor, I saved millions of dollars by requiring county offices to buy used furniture, reduce travel costs and make prisoners pay for the cost of keeping themselves in jail.

In Congress, I'll continue my FIGHT AGAINST GOVERNMENT WASTE.

I'll take action to prevent future bailouts and hold Wall Street accountable for its mistakes.

As a private citizen, I've helped hundreds of young people get through college by raising millions of dollars for scholarships.

In Congress, I'll fight to keep college tuition rates down and ensure public schools have the funding they need to provide a quality education.

America must also keep its promise to retirees and veterans by PROTECTING MEDICARE and strengthening Social Security programs.

America's best days should be ahead of us.

But, we need to stop the partisan bickering and pull together to make America work better.

Mayor Ron Loveridge, Riverside Firefighters Association and National Latino Police Officers Association support my campaign. I hope you do too.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
61ST ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

JOSE MEDINA, Democratic AGE: 59
OCCUPATION: Riverside Educator / Boardmember
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

For over thirty years, I have worked to educate our children and build a stronger, safer community for Riverside families.

I have proudly served our community as a local teacher for three decades and as an elected Riverside Community College Boardmember for 13 years. I have educated our youth, prepared students for college and careers, improved academic standards, created after-school and job-training programs, balanced multi-million dollar budgets, and protected our tax dollars from raids by the state.

State budget cuts and bad decisions by Sacramento bureaucrats are devastating our schools, hurting our economy, and making neighborhoods less safe. I know that strong neighborhood schools, local colleges, and vocational education opportunities strengthen our economy and our community, and that we need local solutions for local problems.

As a father, a teacher, and a school boardmember, I have seen first-hand how fiscal mismanagement from Sacramento, and partisan politics have hurt Riverside County. At a time when schools are being cut to the bone, public safety services are slashed, and local businesses are forced to close shop or leave the state, I will bring a proven record of bringing people together to solve tough problems, balance budgets, and deliver services for Riverside County.

Please join local small business owners, teachers, public safety officers, and community leaders from all walks of life - Democrats, Republicans and Independents – who are coming together to support my campaign for State Assembly. I humbly ask for your support.

MARY FIGUEROA

AGE: 56

OCCUPATION: Retired Peace Officer and College Board Member

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Amid challenging economic times, the Board needs experienced leaders equipped to make the right decisions to ensure an accessible education with the greatest possible number of classes and needed occupational opportunities. Now more than ever, helping produce a skilled work force is vital to the health of our local economy.

I am a Riverside native, UC Riverside graduate, retired Peace Officer and have served on the RCCD board since 1995. Additionally, my election to the state and national community college boards, gives our community a voice never before heard at the national level.

Evidence of our accomplishments: Moreno Valley College and Norco College accreditation as independent colleges; current construction of the Coil School of the Arts and the Culinary Academy enhancing the growing hospitality and entertainment industry; new Nursing/Science Building with state of the art technology educating the next generation of nurses and health providers; the public safety Ben Clark Training Center providing top notch law enforcement and fire safety responders for the protection of our families.

GOVERNING BOARD MEMBER,
MORENO VALLEY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

RICK SAYRE AGE: 59
OCCUPATION: Retired Undersheriff / MVUSD Trustee
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Children are our greatest hope for the future. They need an updated education system that will prepare them for a technology-driven 21st century work force. My track record proves I have been, and will continue to be, a leader who makes decisions based on creating the best schools that will meet the educational needs of ALL students.

Under my tenure...

- Test scores have risen steadily.
- More teachers and students have access to technology that engages them in teaching/learning.
- Despite the state cutting millions of dollars, we've tried keeping budget cuts away from students. Athletics and performing arts are available at all comprehensive high schools.
- By being the leading advocate for fiscal responsibility, our district's bond rating is an "A".
- As a retired Riverside County Undersheriff, who worked for 30 years ensuring the public's safety, it's been my priority that Moreno Valley Unified School District has safe schools.
- I'll continue working with parents, teachers, and staff to ensure our schools are clean, safe, and the best environment for learning.

We're on the right track, but there's more to accomplish. Join the Moreno Valley teachers who are endorsing me, Rick Sayre, as a board member who cares about our students.

Please re-elect Rick Sayre.

DENISE FLEMING
OCCUPATION: Educator, Business Woman
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

There are many problems facing our educational system today, several of them are negatively effecting the quality of education our students are receiving and the very existence of the greatest of American notions; that of a free and adequate public education for all our children. It is our duty as educators and parents to team together, re-establish and reaffirm our very best efforts to selfishly work through these problems and those to come. Ours must be an effort whose end result is to provide Moreno Valley students with a quality education. It is time for new perspectives. I can help but I need your vote. Vote for me to win a spot on Moreno Valley School board and WE can begin. I have a Doctoral Degree in education, a Master's Degree in business, military service and have worked 15 years in the business of education administration in Moreno Valley and the Inland Empire. I have the needed experience. In these troubled times I will be an advocate for fiscal responsibility, while leading our efforts to find new ways of expanding opportunities for all our students. This is my pledge to you along with every student, staff, teacher and parent.
