Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Voter-nominated offices include state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes—regardless of party preference—move on to the general election. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (at least 50 percent + 1), a general election still must be held.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President, county central committee, or local offices.

Write-in candidates for voter-nominated offices can still run in the primary election. However, a write-in candidate can only move on to the general election if the candidate is one of the top two vote-getters in the primary election. Additionally, there is no independent nomination process for a general election.

California law requires the following information to be printed in this guide.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have their qualified party preference, or lack of qualified party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In the county voter information guide, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate their party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
39TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

MARK TAKANO, Democratic

OCCUPATION: U.S. Congressman

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Dear Neighbor,

It has been a great honor to serve the people of Riverside, Moreno Valley, Jurupa Valley and Perris in the United States Congress.

I am proud of the work Congress has accomplished on behalf of the American people. This year, I helped pass legislation to combat record inflation, lower the cost of prescription drugs, and expand domestic energy production while also responding to the climate crisis. I also authored and shepherded through Congress bipartisan legislation that expanded access to healthcare for 9/11-era veterans.

Since taking office, I have passed laws that have supported students, extended health benefits for veterans, and protected small businesses. I have defended our immigrant community, worked to create high-paying jobs in the Inland Empire, and protected Social Security and Medicare. My office has returned over $13 million in federal funds that were owed to members of our community and has secured over $6 million in community project funding to support childcare, fight homelessness, and build vital infrastructure.

As a lifelong resident of the Inland Empire, and former public school teacher, I'm proud to have the support of leaders from throughout the region including Mayor Michael Vargas, RCCD Trustee Mary Figueroa, Assemblymember Sabrina Cervantes and others.

Together, I am confident that we can overcome any obstacle, stand up for the values of democracy, and rebuild a more equitable economy.

I respectfully ask for your vote,

Mark Takano

JEFFREY HEWITT

OCCUPATION: County Supervisor 5th District

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

With the economic turmoil facing our country, my goals continue to focus on providing a steady hand to guide our county through these challenging times. I gained a unique perspective to help our fiscal woes while leading my business through periods of economic uncertainty. I know what it is like to tighten my belt, and then give generously to my employees, as times get tough and eventually rebound.

During my tenure as County Supervisor, I have worked hard to improve District 5, expanding the SR-60 corridor, building sidewalks for safe routes to schools, and making safety improvements to Ramona Expressway. Some of my proudest achievements as Chairman of the Board are the economic successes we've seen, including reduced pension debt and the first balanced budget in 14 years.

I will continue to build much needed infrastructure, solidify public safety, and support the fiscal health of our community. In this way, we can promise a pristine county for our children and grandchildren for years to come.

I look forward to your vote and continuing to serve the community that been my home and source of pride for so many years.

California Motor Voter

The California Motor Voter program is making registering to vote at the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) more convenient and secure. All eligible individuals completing driver's license or ID card or change of address transactions at the DMV will be registered to vote with the California Secretary of State unless they "opt out" of automatic voter registration.

The California Motor Voter program applies to Californians who are 18 years or older and meet the following criteria:

- A United States citizen and a resident of California.
- Not currently serving in a state or federal prison for the conviction of a felony.
- Not currently found mentally incompetent to vote by a court.

Note: Voter pre-registration is available for those 16 and 17 years of age. Their voter registration will become active automatically when they turn 18.

Before visiting a DMV field office, we recommend making an appointment. Visit <https://www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/dmv/detail/portal/foa/welcome> to get started. You can also use DMV online services (<https://www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/dmv/dmv/onlinevcs>) to renew your driver's license or ID card or change your address.

If you indicate you're eligible to vote, once you complete your driver's license or state ID renewal form transaction online, by mail or in person at the DMV, your voter information is then transmitted securely and electronically to the California Secretary of State.

Please note that drivers with an AB 60 driver's license are not eligible to participate in the California Motor Voter program and are not eligible to vote.
