Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices are state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes — regardless of party preference — move on to the general election. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (50 percent + 1), a general election still must be held. Even if there are only two candidates for an office in the open primary, a general election for that office is still required.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President or local offices.

California law requires the following information to be printed in this pamphlet

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In this sample ballot booklet, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan State Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

HOW TO MARK YOUR PAPER BALLOT

Please refer to the following instructions on how to properly complete your Official Ballot:

CORPORATIONS. POLITICAL SPENDING. FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTIONS. LEGISLATIVE ADVISORY QUESTION. Asks whether California's elected officials should use their authority to propose and ratify an amendment to the federal Constitution overturning the United States Supreme Court decision in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Citizens United ruled that laws placing certain limits on political spending by corporations and unions are unconstitutional. Fiscal Impact: No direct fiscal effect on state or local governments.

Shall California's elected officials use all of their constitutional authority, including, but not limited to, proposing and ratifying one or more amendments to the United States Constitution, to overturn Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission (2010) 558 U.S. 310, and other applicable judicial precedents, to allow the full regulation or limitation of campaign contributions and spending, to ensure that all citizens, regardless of wealth, may express their views to one another, and to make clear that corporations should not have the same constitutional rights as human beings?

CORPORACIONES. GASTO POLÍTICO. PROTECCIONES CONSTITUCIONALES FEDERALES. PREGUNTA CONSULTIVA LEGISLATIVA. Pregunta si los funcionarios electos de California deberían usar su autoridad para proponer y ratificar una enmienda a la Constitución federal para anular la decisión de la Corte Suprema de Estados Unidos sobre Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Citizens United dictaminó que las leyes que limitan de cierta manera el gasto político de las corporaciones y los sindicatos son anticonstitucionales. Impacto fiscal: no hay ningún efecto fiscal directo sobre los gobiernos estatal o locales.

¿Usarán los funcionarios electos de California toda su autoridad constitucional, incluidos, entre otros, proponer y ratificar una o más enmiendas a la Constitución de Estados Unidos para anular el caso 558 U.S. 310 de Citizens United vs. Comisión Federal Electoral (Federal Election Commission) (2010) y otros precedentes judiciales aplicables para permitir la total regulación o limitación de contribuciones de campaña y gastos, para asegurar que todos los ciudadanos, independientemente del nivel de riqueza, puedan expresar sus opiniones los unos a los otros y dejar claro que las corporaciones no deberían de tener los mismos derechos constitucionales que los seres humanos?

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
42ND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

TIM SHERIDAN, Democratic

AGE: 50

OCCUPATION: Negotiator / Litigator / Instructor
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

To change Washington, we need to send someone new to Washington. I'm that new person!

When I'm elected:

I will focus on protecting Social Security. If you're a Social Security recipient, you did not receive a cost-of-living increase this year because Congress has continued to mandate the use of an outdated Consumer Price Index (CPI). I will work to change the index to one that will result in a consistent and fairer cost-of-living increase each year.

Second, I will fight to increase pay for our military personnel and to ensure that the Department of Veterans Affairs is fully funded. We have a responsibility to our veterans and I will make veterans issues and their individual needs a priority.

Third, I will introduce legislation to reduce student loan interest rates and promote more reasonable repayment terms — both for current and future borrowers. When students leave college, they should not be saddled with unreasonable payments because of excessively high interest rates on student loans.

Fourth, jobs! I will actively engage with individuals, small businesses and corporations and will initiate measures to bring good-paying jobs to our community, including jobs related to clean energy, those necessary to complete infrastructure repairs and to resolve traffic issues.

Finally, I pledge that when I'm not in Washington, I will be at home in the District to meet and listen to my fellow citizens. I will attend community events and maintain regularly scheduled office hours.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
42ND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

KEN CALVERT, Republican

OCCUPATION: U.S. Representative
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

It's an honor to represent Riverside County in Congress and I stand ready to serve as your voice for a more effective, accountable government in Washington.

Economic opportunity and wage growth continue to be stagnant, that's why I'm leading the effort in Congress to reduce job-killing bureaucrat regulations that create more red-tape than jobs. We need tax reform that lets you keep more of the money you earn.

As a former small business owner, I know what it's like to sign the front of a paycheck and how much those paychecks mean to hard working families.

We must keep Americans safe from all threats. I want to give our military and our law enforcement agencies the assets and ability to eliminate radical Islamic terror threats before they kill innocent Americans. I stand with our police officers and military, who do an extraordinary job everyday.

I voted to stop Obama's Syrian and Iraqi refugee program.

Obama's unconstitutional executive orders and support for pro-amnesty policies only makes our broken immigration system even worse.

I wrote the bill that created E-Verify and I'm leading the effort in Congress to make its use mandatory nationwide.

I proudly authored the bill that helps restore local control of Ontario Airport and got that legislation signed into law.

My priorities include: protecting Americans from radical Islamic extremists, improving our economy; addressing our immigration crisis; and tackling California's water challenges.

I humbly ask for your vote and thank you for the opportunity to represent you.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
67TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

JORGE LOPEZ, Democratic AGE: 45
OCCUPATION: Supply Chain / Businessman
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

U.S. Marine Corps Veteran, Business Owner, Supply Chain Specialist, Son, Husband, Father and Foster Parent. Each one of those labels implies an obligation that qualifies me to represent you in the State Assembly: service, leadership, budget driven, caring, sympathetic, compassionate and kind.

My desire to serve the people of our district is rooted in my up-bringing. Eldest of five, I was partial care giver to my younger siblings. My church gave me a sense of community and selfless service. The Marines — honor and duty.

I am bilingual (English/Spanish), hold two Bachelor's degrees and I'm an active, Progressive, Community Organizer working to bring about the changes necessary to represent your interests: your security and that of your loved ones.

Your support will bring high-tech, clean-energy, and living-wage jobs to our communities and avoid long commuting times. Time better spent nurturing and guiding your family.

I will work with ALL members of the Assembly and local officials to be your voice and hire more peace officers, fire fighters, provide quality education, build drought/flood preventing infrastructure, and safe, well-lit roads and streets. Safe streets forge strong communities.

I will forever be at the front line to represent injured warriors, veterans, children, the elderly, and women. I am an Environmentalist who supports small business, health care for all, opposes outsourcing our jobs, against animal cruelty and for a leaner, not meaner, responsible budget.

Please vote for an inclusive leader who will improve your quality of life.

Thank you!

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
67TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

MELISSA A. MELENDEZ, Republican AGE: 48
OCCUPATION: California State Assemblywoman
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

I am honored that you, the citizens of the 67th Assembly District, have trusted me to represent you in the California State Assembly.

When I served our country in the Navy, I made a commitment to defend the Constitution. As your State Assemblywoman, I have taken that commitment to Sacramento where I defend the Constitution every single day.

I have worked diligently to strengthen and protect our 2nd Amendment rights while opposing tax increases and job-killing regulations.

As I committed to you when I first asked for your vote, I authored legislation to establish tax relief for small businesses, expanded protections for our military personnel, and increased election transparency by making election data available online.

This year, I introduced legislation to redirect billions of dollars from the High Speed Rail to fix our crumbling roads and bridges. I believe road maintenance and infrastructure improvements are a basic responsibility of government. I oppose leveraging the state's finances to fund pet projects of politicians like High Speed Rail.

As Vice Chair of the Public Safety Committee, I have fought against the onslaught of soft-on-crime policies that have only resulted in rising crime rates. I will continue the fight to make public safety a top priority and ensure law enforcement has the resources necessary to keep our neighborhoods safe.

I would be honored to earn your vote and continue representing your voice in the Legislature. Together we will make our golden state a safe and prosperous place once again.

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Neighbors of Lake Elsinore, my name is Edwin Castro. Since the age of 16 I have been a community advocate and worked tirelessly to spread the word on diversity and community engagement. During my time living in North San Diego, I had the opportunity in April of 2014 to serve as a City Commissioner for the City of Escondido. Thanks to this new responsibility I was appointed and now currently the Community Ambassador and Development for Wells Fargo Bank representing the greater San Diego area. It's during this time meeting hundreds of community members and having many conversations on what they wish to see change, I realize not enough is being done. I am sadden to say that the same conversations are happing in my community. With this issue in mind, I am committed to work on engaging our community and to seek out all backgrounds that need a voice. I want to encourage a diverse leadership team for the City of Lake Elsinore. I'm looking forward to continue meeting more members of our city and it would be an honor to have the opportunity to represent our wonderful community.

STEVE MANOS

AGE: 40

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

With the support of family and residents, it is with deep appreciation and great humility that I once again seek election as your Council Member.

Our city faces many challenges in an era filled with opportunities. It is more important than ever that we elect leaders that have experience, a clear vision for the future, and the fortitude to keep us moving in the right direction. As your Council Member I have held to a very simple set of principles.

Keep our City safe.

Keep our City prepared for new opportunities.

Keep our residents' interests first.

As the last economic cycle blossomed, our city positioned itself as a destination for new industries and recreational opportunities.
