Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices are state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes — regardless of party preference — move on to the general election. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (50 percent + 1), a general election still must be held. Even if there are only two candidates for an office in the open primary, a general election for that office is still required.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President or local offices.

California law requires the following information to be printed in this pamphlet

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In this sample ballot booklet, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan State Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

HOW TO MARK YOUR PAPER BALLOT

Please refer to the following instructions on how to properly complete your Official Ballot:

CORPORATIONS. POLITICAL SPENDING. FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTIONS. LEGISLATIVE ADVISORY QUESTION. Asks whether California's elected officials should use their authority to propose and ratify an amendment to the federal Constitution overturning the United States Supreme Court decision in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Citizens United ruled that laws placing certain limits on political spending by corporations and unions are unconstitutional. Fiscal Impact: No direct fiscal effect on state or local governments.

Shall California's elected officials use all of their constitutional authority, including, but not limited to, proposing and ratifying one or more amendments to the United States Constitution, to overturn Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission (2010) 558 U.S. 310, and other applicable judicial precedents, to allow the full regulation or limitation of campaign contributions and spending, to ensure that all citizens, regardless of wealth, may express their views to one another, and to make clear that corporations should not have the same constitutional rights as human beings?

CORPORACIONES. GASTO POLÍTICO. PROTECCIONES CONSTITUCIONALES FEDERALES. PREGUNTA CONSULTIVA LEGISLATIVA. Pregunta si los funcionarios electos de California deberían usar su autoridad para proponer y ratificar una enmienda a la Constitución federal para anular la decisión de la Corte Suprema de Estados Unidos sobre Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Citizens United dictaminó que las leyes que limitan de cierta manera el gasto político de las corporaciones y los sindicatos son anticonstitucionales. Impacto fiscal: no hay ningún efecto fiscal directo sobre los gobiernos estatal o locales.

¿Usarán los funcionarios electos de California toda su autoridad constitucional, incluidos, entre otros, proponer y ratificar una o más enmiendas a la Constitución de Estados Unidos para anular el caso 558 U.S. 310 de Citizens United vs. Comisión Federal Electoral (Federal Election Commission) (2010) y otros precedentes judiciales aplicables para permitir la total regulación o limitación de contribuciones de campaña y gastos, para asegurar que todos los ciudadanos, independientemente del nivel de riqueza, puedan expresar sus opiniones los unos a los otros y dejar claro que las corporaciones no deberían de tener los mismos derechos constitucionales que los seres humanos?

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
42ND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

TIM SHERIDAN, Democratic
OCCUPATION: Negotiator / Litigator / Instructor
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

AGE: 50

To change Washington, we need to send someone new to Washington. I'm that new person!

When I'm elected:

I will focus on protecting Social Security. If you're a Social Security recipient, you did not receive a cost-of-living increase this year because Congress has continued to mandate the use of an outdated Consumer Price Index (CPI). I will work to change the index to one that will result in a consistent and fairer cost-of-living increase each year.

Second, I will fight to increase pay for our military personnel and to ensure that the Department of Veterans Affairs is fully funded. We have a responsibility to our veterans and I will make veterans issues and their individual needs a priority.

Third, I will introduce legislation to reduce student loan interest rates and promote more reasonable repayment terms — both for current and future borrowers. When students leave college, they should not be saddled with unreasonable payments because of excessively high interest rates on student loans.

Fourth, jobs! I will actively engage with individuals, small businesses and corporations and will initiate measures to bring good-paying jobs to our community, including jobs related to clean energy, those necessary to complete infrastructure repairs and to resolve traffic issues.

Finally, I pledge that when I'm not in Washington, I will be at home in the District to meet and listen to my fellow citizens. I will attend community events and maintain regularly scheduled office hours.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
42ND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

KEN CALVERT, Republican
OCCUPATION: U.S. Representative
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

It's an honor to represent Riverside County in Congress and I stand ready to serve as your voice for a more effective, accountable government in Washington.

Economic opportunity and wage growth continue to be stagnant, that's why I'm leading the effort in Congress to reduce job-killing bureaucrat regulations that create more red-tape than jobs. We need tax reform that lets you keep more of the money you earn.

As a former small business owner, I know what it's like to sign the front of a paycheck and how much those paychecks mean to hard working families.

We must keep Americans safe from all threats. I want to give our military and our law enforcement agencies the assets and ability to eliminate radical Islamic terror threats before they kill innocent Americans. I stand with our police officers and military, who do an extraordinary job everyday.

I voted to stop Obama's Syrian and Iraqi refugee program.

Obama's unconstitutional executive orders and support for pro-amnesty policies only makes our broken immigration system even worse.

I wrote the bill that created E-Verify and I'm leading the effort in Congress to make its use mandatory nationwide.

I proudly authored the bill that helps restore local control of Ontario Airport and got that legislation signed into law.

My priorities include: protecting Americans from radical Islamic extremists, improving our economy; addressing our immigration crisis; and tackling California's water challenges.

I humbly ask for your vote and thank you for the opportunity to represent you.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR STATE SENATOR,
31ST SENATORIAL DISTRICT

RICHARD REED, Republican

AGE: 65

OCCUPATION: Attorney

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

If you have never heard of me, it's because I am not a career politician. I was a public school teacher for over ten years and have owned three businesses, all of them in Riverside. As an attorney, I have advocated for property rights and championed, before the court of appeal, the 1st Amendment right of voters to place a measure on the ballot without interference from the government. I do not believe in government-as-usual.

I believe in: smaller government and fewer regulations; local control and lower taxes; better roads and more water.

Smaller government: California government is a business-hostile bureaucracy that stifles entrepreneurship with red tape and misplaced subsidies.

Local control: Communities should be allowed greater self-determination in determining policies that impact local businesses and resources. Keep control and tax dollars local.

Better roads: Transportation is essential to economic prosperity. Well-maintained highways allow businesses to operate more efficiently and reduce costs to the consumer.

More water: Northern California gets sufficient annual rainfall to keep the state's reservoirs full. Over a century of repeated droughts should have taught the legislature not to rely on snow-melt in the Sierra Nevada Mountains to supply the state with water that is vital to agriculture and to residents.

We have the means to solve our water problems. In the 21st Century, more droughts and famines are caused by governments than by nature. Please vote for me in November and vote against government-as-usual.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
60TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

SABRINA CERVANTES, Democratic
OCCUPATION: Assembly District Director
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

SABRINA CERVANTES is a lifelong Riverside County resident, who serves as a local District Director for the State Assembly. In this role, she works with community organizations and businesses to strengthen our regional economy, improve our public schools, and protect funding for services that our seniors and veterans rely on.

We need a new leader, SABRINA CERVANTES, who will fight for working families and the middle-class, not the special interests and lobbyists that already have too much power in Sacramento.

SABRINA CERVANTES is strongly supported by local nurses and school employees because she has a proven record of fighting for the issues that matter most to middle-class families. Her campaign has also earned the endorsements of Attorney General Kamala Harris, Congressman Mark Takano, State Senator Richard Roth, former Riverside Mayor Ron Loveridge, and community leaders from Corona, Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, Norco, and Riverside.

SABRINA CERVANTES earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of California, Riverside, and she completed an executive education program at the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. She is also a leader in local non-profit organizations.

"I'm running for State Assembly to protect the promise of California for the middle-class, and I will fight to ensure that those who work hard are able to succeed and provide the best possible opportunities for their families. I would be honored to earn your vote."
