Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices are state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes — regardless of party preference — move on to the general election. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (50 percent + 1), a general election still must be held. Even if there are only two candidates for an office in the open primary, a general election for that office is still required.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President or local offices.

California law requires the following information to be printed in this pamphlet

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In this sample ballot booklet, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan State Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

HOW TO MARK YOUR PAPER BALLOT

CORPORATIONS. POLITICAL SPENDING. FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL PROTECTIONS. LEGISLATIVE ADVISORY QUESTION. Asks whether California's elected officials should use their authority to propose and ratify an amendment to the federal Constitution overturning the United States Supreme Court decision in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Citizens United ruled that laws placing certain limits on political spending by corporations and unions are unconstitutional. Fiscal Impact: No direct fiscal effect on state or local governments.

Shall California's elected officials use all of their constitutional authority, including, but not limited to, proposing and ratifying one or more amendments to the United States Constitution, to overturn Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission (2010) 558 U.S. 310, and other applicable judicial precedents, to allow the full regulation or limitation of campaign contributions and spending, to ensure that all citizens, regardless of wealth, may express their views to one another, and to make clear that corporations should not have the same constitutional rights as human beings?

CORPORACIONES. GASTO POLÍTICO. PROTECCIONES CONSTITUCIONALES FEDERALES. PREGUNTA CONSULTIVA LEGISLATIVA. Pregunta si los funcionarios electos de California deberían usar su autoridad para proponer y ratificar una enmienda a la Constitución federal para anular la decisión de la Corte Suprema de Estados Unidos sobre Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission. Citizens United dictaminó que las leyes que limitan de cierta manera el gasto político de las corporaciones y los sindicatos son anticonstitucionales. Impacto fiscal: no hay ningún efecto fiscal directo sobre los gobiernos estatal o locales.

¿Usarán los funcionarios electos de California toda su autoridad constitucional, incluidos, entre otros, proponer y ratificar una o más enmiendas a la Constitución de Estados Unidos para anular el caso 558 U.S. 310 de Citizens United vs. Comisión Federal Electoral (Federal Election Commission) (2010) y otros precedentes judiciales aplicables para permitir la total regulación o limitación de contribuciones de campaña y gastos, para asegurar que todos los ciudadanos, independientemente del nivel de riqueza, puedan expresar sus opiniones los unos a los otros y dejar claro que las corporaciones no deberían de tener los mismos derechos constitucionales que los seres humanos?

Doug Shepherd is a small businessman, not a politician.

Doug will embrace legislation that will reduce the barriers to innovation and business startups. MARK TAKANO, Democratic AGE: 55
OCCUPATION: U.S. Representative
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Dear Neighbor,

Since being elected to Congress, I've been working hard for the communities of Riverside County and fighting for the commonsense reforms we need to fix Washington.

As your Representative, I have expanded access to healthcare for our veterans, fought for the middle class, worked to create good paying jobs in the Inland Empire, and stood up to the leaders of both parties to protect Social Security and Medicare.

My office has secured more than $2 million in benefits owed to veterans and held regular town hall meetings to understand local priorities. I introduced legislation to strengthen our schools, rein in the abuses of the for-profit college industry, make it easier for veterans to go back to school, and support the creation of advanced manufacturing jobs.

I will continue to fight for the middle class by supporting job-creating local investments like the UC Riverside Medical School, for comprehensive immigration reform, and against tax cuts for billionaires and corporations who want to ship American jobs overseas.

Prior to being elected to Congress, I dedicated my life to public service as a high school teacher and Riverside Community College Trustee. Those roles prepared me to be an effective advocate for local schools, businesses, veterans, seniors, our military, and middle class families.

I am proud to have the support of local leaders from throughout Riverside, Moreno Valley, Jurupa Valley, and Perris.

I respectfully ask for your vote so we can continue to grow our economy and fix Congress.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR STATE SENATOR,
31ST SENATORIAL DISTRICT

RICHARD REED, Republican

AGE: 65

OCCUPATION: Attorney

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

If you have never heard of me, it's because I am not a career politician. I was a public school teacher for over ten years and have owned three businesses, all of them in Riverside. As an attorney, I have advocated for property rights and championed, before the court of appeal, the 1st Amendment right of voters to place a measure on the ballot without interference from the government. I do not believe in government-as-usual.

I believe in: smaller government and fewer regulations; local control and lower taxes; better roads and more water.

Smaller government: California government is a business-hostile bureaucracy that stifles entrepreneurship with red tape and misplaced subsidies.

Local control: Communities should be allowed greater self-determination in determining policies that impact local businesses and resources. Keep control and tax dollars local.

Better roads: Transportation is essential to economic prosperity. Well-maintained highways allow businesses to operate more efficiently and reduce costs to the consumer.

More water: Northern California gets sufficient annual rainfall to keep the state's reservoirs full. Over a century of repeated droughts should have taught the legislature not to rely on snow-melt in the Sierra Nevada Mountains to supply the state with water that is vital to agriculture and to residents.

We have the means to solve our water problems. In the 21st Century, more droughts and famines are caused by governments than by nature. Please vote for me in November and vote against government-as-usual.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
60TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

SABRINA CERVANTES, Democratic
OCCUPATION: Assembly District Director
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

SABRINA CERVANTES is a lifelong Riverside County resident, who serves as a local District Director for the State Assembly. In this role, she works with community organizations and businesses to strengthen our regional economy, improve our public schools, and protect funding for services that our seniors and veterans rely on.

We need a new leader, SABRINA CERVANTES, who will fight for working families and the middle-class, not the special interests and lobbyists that already have too much power in Sacramento.

SABRINA CERVANTES is strongly supported by local nurses and school employees because she has a proven record of fighting for the issues that matter most to middle-class families. Her campaign has also earned the endorsements of Attorney General Kamala Harris, Congressman Mark Takano, State Senator Richard Roth, former Riverside Mayor Ron Loveridge, and community leaders from Corona, Eastvale, Jurupa Valley, Norco, and Riverside.

SABRINA CERVANTES earned her Bachelor of Arts Degree from the University of California, Riverside, and she completed an executive education program at the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. She is also a leader in local non-profit organizations.

"I'm running for State Assembly to protect the promise of California for the middle-class, and I will fight to ensure that those who work hard are able to succeed and provide the best possible opportunities for their families. I would be honored to earn your vote."

IMPARTIAL ANALYSIS OF MEASURE “Z”

Measure Z is a ballot measure that, if approved by a majority of voters, would amend the Riverside Municipal Code to enact an increase of one percent (1%) to the transactions and use tax. The Measure, placed on the ballot by the City Council, is a “general” tax, which means that the City of Riverside may use the tax revenues for any governmental purpose (for example, repairs of streets, potholes, and infrastructure, as well as maintaining the City’s long-term financial stability).

Although Measure Z is entitled “transactions and use tax” it is commonly referred to as a sales tax. With some exceptions, transactions and use tax is levied on the sale or use of tangible personal property sold at retail. Retailers collect the tax at the time of sale and remit the funds to the State Board of Equalization, which administers the tax, including transmitting payment to the City.

Currently, the total retail sales tax in Riverside City is 8% of the purchase price. The revenue generated by this tax is allocated to the State, Riverside County, and the City. Of the 8%, the State receives 6.25%, the County of Riverside receives .75% and the City receives 1%.

All of the proceeds of the tax increase proposed in Measure Z would go only to the City to be placed into the general fund, and would not go to the State or County.

A “yes” vote is a vote to approve a one percent (1%) increase in transactions and use tax.

A “no” vote is a vote against the increase in transactions and use tax.

If approved, the transaction and use tax increase will take effect on April 1, 2017 through 2036 unless extended by the voters. The City will begin receiving revenues in July, 2017.

The above statement is an impartial analysis of Measure Z. For more information, please visit the City’s website at www.riversideca.gov or contact the City Clerk at 951-826-5557.

By: Gary G. Geuss
City Attorney

ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF MEASURE “Z”

Vital city services in Riverside have suffered as a result of the Great Recession. Public safety has been cut, youth and after-school programs have been reduced, and our homeless problem is getting worse. As budget reductions continue to take their toll, our police department has fewer officers and fire department and emergency response times have been compromised.

It's time to restore public safety and vital services for Riverside. Measure Z will provide the funding needed for essential public safety services while helping us take care of the basics – like filling potholes and repairing sidewalks. It will prevent further cuts to police protection, paramedic services and programs that fight gangs and drugs.

Riverside is a great place to live and raise a family. We cannot afford to keep cutting vital services. It's time to protect our future. Measure Z will generate $48 million per year for Riverside to provide police and fire protection, paramedics and 9-1-1 emergency response. In addition, Measure Z will provide the resources to take care of the basics like street repairs, tree trimming, libraries, parks, and senior services.

The homeless problem is getting worse, having reached excessive levels in Riverside, hurting local businesses, public safety, and our quality of life. Measure Z will help get people off the streets and into programs and housing, working to end the cycle of homelessness.

Measure Z includes tough accountability, requiring annual independent financial audits and citizen review of expenditures. It ensures that all funds remain in the City of Riverside and cannot be taken away by Sacramento. These strong fiscal safeguards will ensure funds are used efficiently, effectively and for the benefit of Riverside.

Rose M. Mayes, Executive Director, Fair Housing Council of Riv. Cnty

REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF MEASURE “Z”

The City of Riverside's Measure Z is a general tax that can be used for any purpose. The “Public Safety” title is very misleading. There is no legal requirement that fire and police get one penny!

Taxes from Measure Z can be spent for “any governmental purpose” including:

- Raising city salaries and benefits. Increasing revenues from Measure Z may result in automatic salary increases.
- Building big, costly projects by borrowing against Measure Z. Riverside's mayor, council and city manager say a city jail, new city hall, new main library, and convention center expansion are needed.

There's also no guarantee that Measure Z revenues will be used to reduce homelessness, fill potholes or fix any other problem.

Riverside taxpayers are providing enough revenue already. City revenue is at an all-time high. In the last six years, the city's four main revenue sources have increased an average of 4% annually, two and a half times faster than inflation. Steady revenue increases are forecast for years.

Riverside voters have shown their support for better city services by approving extra taxes for specific purposes like new fire stations and library operations.

Unfortunately, many family incomes in Riverside have not recovered from the recession. Measure Z is the largest tax increase in city history. It goes too far.

Vote NO to send a loud and clear message to City Hall that you want vital services protected and overspending stopped. The city must live within its means.

Keep your taxes from being diverted for other purposes.

Vote NO on the City of Riverside's Measure Z.

Dr. Sharon Mateja, Riverside Home owner & Tax payer
Paul C Sundeen, Retired Asst City Mgr/CFO Chief Financial Officer
Susana Hernandez, Retiree–Alvord School District
Bob Buster, Riverside native, ex Councilmember

ARGUMENT AGAINST MEASURE “Z”

Vote NO on Measure Z, the biggest tax increase in Riverside's history.

Measure Z costs taxpayers $1 BILLION DOLLARS over 20 years.

It's not the tiny “one-cent” or penny increase described by the ballot. It's actually ONE PERCENT (1%), as the City Attorney's Analysis clarifies.

The sales tax goes from 8 to 9 percent, raising at least $48 million annually. City Hall gets a huge revenue surplus to spend any way it wants.

The City Council approved pay raises without sufficient funds, causing a deficit in the $267 million budget.

Measure Z raises FIVE times what is needed to balance the budget. Taxpayers deserve fiscal responsibility.

Measure Z is UNFAIR:

- Riverside households have not recovered income lost in the recession. Savings accounts earn less than 1%; seniors' Social Security is not increasing.
- We'll pay $250 more in taxes to buy a $25,000 car.
- The tax burdens our children and grandchildren.

Personnel costs make up almost three-quarters of the budget. City employees receive generous pay (with annual “step” increases), benefits, and pensions. City pensions average $71,811 (police and fire are at $108,173).

Measure Z is UNNECESSARY:

- City revenues are increasing rapidly, including those from the current Sales Tax and Property Tax. A 6½% Utility User's Tax is also on our electricity, water, natural gas, phones, and cable TV bills.
- Unlike other cities, Riverside has a big extra source of annual revenue: $45 million in “profit” from electric and water rates was transferred from our utility to City Hall this year. That's on top of Utility User's Tax revenues.

Belt tightening is needed; not a tax increase.

Don't be tricked by Measure Z backers' scare tactics and doomsday predictions.

VOTE NO on Measure Z. For information call (951) 780-4749; look for NO on City of Riverside Measure Z on Facebook.

REBUTTAL TO ARGUMENT AGAINST MEASURE “Z”

Measure Z was put on the ballot by the Mayor and City Council to protect public safety and vital city services. Measure Z is supported by Riverside's firefighters, police officers, local businesses and community organizations.

Here is what Measure Z actually does. It will generate $48 million per year for Riverside to restore public safety and essential services. Measure Z will help address our homeless problem, providing needed funding to get people off the streets and into programs and housing. It will prevent future cuts to police protection, paramedic services and programs that fight gangs and drugs.

The opponents are right when they say taxpayers deserve fiscal accountability. That's why Measure Z was written to require strict accountability, with independent financial audits and citizen review. It ensures that all Measure Z money stays in Riverside, with no funds going to Sacramento. Measure Z was written to “sunset,” meaning it will expire unless a vote of the people keeps it in place.

The Great Recession hit Riverside hard, resulting in cuts to public safety, youth and after-school programs. Measure Z provides the funding to restore vital services and to take care of the basics – like filling potholes, repairing sidewalks, trimming trees, protecting libraries, maintaining parks and providing senior services.

Measure Z will prevent further cuts to public safety and restore vital services for Riverside.
