Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices include state legislative offices, United States congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes—regardless of party preference—move on to the general election. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (at least 50 percent + 1), a general election still must be held.

Write-in candidates for voter-nominated offices may still run in the primary election. However, a write-in candidate may only move on to the general election if the candidate is one of the top two vote-getters in the primary election. Additionally, there is no independent nomination process for a general election.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for United States President, county central committee, or local offices.

California law requires the following information to be printed in this guide.

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her qualified party preference, or lack of qualified party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In the county voter information guide, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, 48TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

DARRELL ISSA, Republican
OCCUPATION: Member of Congress
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

It is my honor to serve the people of Murrieta, Temecula and Riverside County in Congress. I built my business and raised my family here and I'm proud to be a member of our community.

As a veteran, I proudly co-authored legislation together with Senator Joni Ernst to modernize our Armed Forces to give U.S. warfighters every advantage on the battlefield of the future.

I fought for legislation to increase military pay and to restore service members who were wrongfully discharged under the vaccine mandate policy.

When the administration refused to hear from the Gold Star families of the 13 service members lost in the withdrawal from Afghanistan, I gave them the nationally televised hearing they deserved.

I wrote legislation to keep sexually violent predators out of our neighborhoods, to protect our children and families.

I cut red tape to hire more federal firefighters to prevent and fight wildfires in our region.

Securing our border, finishing the wall, restoring government accountability and transparency, and supporting our armed forces to ensure peace through strength are my top priorities.

My current and past endorsements proudly include the Deputy Sheriff's Association, numerous mayors, councilmembers and local elected officials.

We deserve efficient, effective government that preserves our freedoms and empowers us to succeed. Our policies should support the growth of jobs and small businesses, not government.

It would be my honor to continue to serve you in Congress.

I humbly ask for your vote.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE, 48TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

STEPHEN HOULAHAN, Democratic AGE: 51
OCCUPATION: Registered Nurse
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Dear Neighbor,

Thank you for choosing me as your nominee for United States Representative District 48.

As a full-time professional and family man, I may not have met you on the campaign trail. However, I have met with many constituents and your concerns will shape my actions in Congress.

My plans include protecting Social Security and Medicare to allow seniors to retire with dignity. Restoring the rights that were ripped away from women after 50 years. Working with all members of congress toward resolution of the border crisis. Advocating for you, rather than well-connected billionaires. All while upholding the Constitution that protects our great nation's democracy.

As a former City Councilman and Vice Mayor of Santee, I have leadership experience addressing public needs. While serving, I prioritized infrastructure such as repairing roads and drainage systems, redeveloping parks and expanding trail systems, while championing public safety. I led Santee residents in voting for term limits for councilmembers, an action I hope to extend to congress. As your Representative, I will bring federal funds here to improve our standard of living.

Having studied business, I understand why the US economy is the best in the world. In Congress, I will ensure that every constituent gets their fair share of the wealth you created.

As a healthcare professional for over 25 years, I have served my patients and saved countless lives. Service is part of my family's heritage. Elect me to congress and I will work for you.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY, 36TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

JEFF GONZALEZ, Republican
OCCUPATION: Retired Marine / Pastor / Business Owner
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

I served in the Marine Corps for 21 years, four times in combat zones. My experiences taught me there are no Republicans or Democrats in a foxhole.
We need to stop the political party fighting and get things done.
We are Americans and Californians first. That's how I will serve as your Assemblyman: people over party.
When I retired from the military, I watched too many of my fellow Marines die by suicide. I became a pastor and worked to help servicemembers recover from what they experienced in combat.
Later, I opened a small business. Many nights, my wife and I worried about how to pay the bills. You see, we have four children, and one is severely mentally and physically disabled. We take care of him every day, and wouldn't have it any other way.
Here is the truth: the politicians in Sacramento are making our lives harder. People struggle, yet they raise taxes on gas and make food, housing, and our daily needs more expensive. I'll vote to lower prices so it's easier to live a middle-class life.
Our schools are failing. Students are not learning the basics to get good jobs and are threatened with violence. I'll vote to ensure students get the best education and that our schools are safe.
The politicians in Sacramento are messing with you: your jobs and your family. I'll be on your side every time. When there is trouble, send in a Marine!

DAVID SOLA AGE: 39
OCCUPATION: Retired Marine / Parent
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

My name is David Sola, and I am running for the Trustee Area 4 position on the Temecula Valley School Board.

As a veteran with over 20 years experience in the Marines I value hard work, leadership, and dedication to my community and family.

My priorities as your Trustee in Area 4 will be to invest in the success of our district, helping to usher in technology beneficial to students and faculty, and embolden student support systems.

I am proud to have served in Operations Iraqi Freedom, Enduring Freedom, and Inherent Resolve. Now, I am dedicated to serving my community with the same level of commitment, fiscal responsibility, and accountability to our constituents.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR DIRECTOR, RANCHO CALIFORNIA WATER DISTRICT

JOHN E. HOAGLAND
OCCUPATION: Retired Water Manager
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

As your representative to Rancho California Water District, I will continue the District's programs to maximize the use of the local groundwater basin and Vail Lake to minimize the impact of wildly fluctuating imported water costs on local water rates and by using technology to enhance reliable service while controlling internal costs.

My wife and I have lived in Temecula over 35-years and have watched our region's population growth. But we cannot forget the existing vibrant equestrian and avocado/citrus/vineyard agriculture aspects of our area, that make Temecula a wonderful place to live. I have and will continue to support the wide variety of RCWD programs which assist both agricultural and homeowner customers to use water as efficiently as practical.

I am a UCLA graduate with a MS in Water Resources Engineering and a registered Civil Engineer. I have spent my professional career in the Water/Wastewater industry working as the Utilities Manager for two Cities and as the General Manager of three Water Districts. I thoroughly understand the engineering, financial and administrative aspects of utility operations.

I pledge to keep RCWD operating in the most efficient fashion for all ratepayers.

I respectfully request your vote.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR DIRECTOR, RANCHO CALIFORNIA WATER DISTRICT

BRIAN J. BRADY
OCCUPATION: Water Resources Engineer
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Actions speak louder than words, and my background reflects 40 years of proven, measurable results managing public and private water utilities.

As general manager of Rancho California Water District from 2003-2008, my top priority was to maximize and safeguard our local water supplies by developing and implementing recycling and groundwater protection programs. Today, my independent consulting practice focuses on water utility management, strategic operations, assessment of water supplies, and water rights. A registered Civil Engineer, I'm a graduate of Loyola University (BSE, Water Resource Management); of the University of Southern California (MBA, Finance); and of Pepperdine University (EdD, Organizational Leadership) where my doctoral research probed the responsibilities of elected water board officials.

My pledge to the community is to ensure that our families, businesses, and agricultural interests receive high-quality water at the lowest possible cost. To do that, we must continue to protect and grow our groundwater resources; reduce dependence on expensive imported water; and recognize that prudent environmental stewardship and a safe, reliable, and affordable water supply are critical to our prosperity.

Thank you for your vote.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR DIRECTOR, RANCHO CALIFORNIA WATER DISTRICT

BILL WILSON
OCCUPATION: Incumbent
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Four More Years of the highest quality water at the lowest possible price.

I am Bill Wilson and I want your vote for Director of the Rancho California Water District. I am an incumbent with a 10 year track record of ensuring our rate payer's funds are spent in a prudent manner. As an owner of Wilson Creek Winery & Vineyards, we farm over 300 acres of grapes and water is critical to growing the best grapes that will produce the best wines possible. Water is precious and crucial in the wine business. We all must continue to conserve and capture as much water as we can. Wilson Creek is doing our part in the vineyards and have reduced our water consumption dramatically through Regenerative Agriculture practices. WCW is a leader in this area and we are trying to convince the rest of the grape industry to adopt Regen Ag water conservation techniques. Help me keep water prices low and the water quality high for generations to come by voting for Bill Wilson, Director – Rancho California Water District!
