Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices include state legislative offices, United States congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes—regardless of party preference—move on to the general election. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (at least 50 percent + 1), a general election still must be held.

Write-in candidates for voter-nominated offices may still run in the primary election. However, a write-in candidate may only move on to the general election if the candidate is one of the top two vote-getters in the primary election. Additionally, there is no independent nomination process for a general election.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for United States President, county central committee, or local offices.

California law requires the following information to be printed in this guide.

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her qualified party preference, or lack of qualified party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In the county voter information guide, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
25TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

RAUL RUIZ, Democratic

OCCUPATION: Emergency Physician / Congressman

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

These are hard times. Too many people feel anxious about where things are headed. They're frustrated and angry that politicians seem more focused on their own selfish interests than in helping others.

I grew up in a trailer in Coachella, the son of farmworkers. My family – and most others in our community – struggled to afford food, housing, and healthcare.

I wanted to make life better for families like ours, so I became an Emergency Room physician to help people in need. Public service is my passion.

I ran for Congress so I could do even more to help people in need. I don't care about titles or power or partisan bickering. I care about getting things done, and putting people over politics. That means:

LOWERING THE COST OF LIVING: I helped pass the Inflation Reduction Act, cutting the cost of energy and medicine. I've fought to crack down on oil and gas companies that are gouging consumers, and to reduce the cost of housing and childcare.

AFFORDABLE HEALTHCARE FOR ALL: I wrote a law improving MediCal coverage for thousands of local families. I voted to prevent insurance companies from denying health coverage to people with pre-existing health conditions, and to reduce prescription drug costs through Medicare.

PROTECTING WOMEN'S HEALTH: I've always fought to protect a woman's right to make her own reproductive and healthcare decisions, including the decision to access a safe, legal abortion, birth control, and In Vitro Fertilization (IVF) services.

People over politics. That's what I believe in.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
25TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

IAN WEEKS, Republican

AGE: 39

OCCUPATION: Certified Financial Planner

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

God. Family. Freedom. Those are my values.

Trust your gut. You know something is wrong. Every time you buy groceries. Every time you fill your gas tank.

Politicians claim to fight for working people, but life keeps getting harder. Every day we face a greater struggle to earn an honest living.

They promote radical, fringe issues like chaotic open borders, de-funding the police, completely unrestricted abortion, men in women's sports/locker rooms, and gender reassignment surgery for children.

All while failing to deliver basic needs like abundant, inexpensive gas, power, and water; safe streets, and affordable food.

They fight against parents, to impose radical ideological curriculums in classrooms while our schools fail at their main job; teaching children to read, write, and think critically/independently.

Our country is in desperate need of new leaders. Men and women of honesty, integrity, and wisdom.

I am a believer in and committed follower of Jesus Christ. Whether you share my faith or not, I commit to you, before Almighty God to be a man of those qualities.

I am a husband, and father of two young sons. I care deeply about the future of this great nation.

I am a Certified Financial Planner (nearly 20 years in practice). I have the professional skills and common sense to solve the problems we face as a nation.

Send me to Congress. I'm humbly seeking to be YOUR Representative. I will not fail you.

May our nation return to God, that God may again bless America.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
36TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

JEFF GONZALEZ, Republican

OCCUPATION: Retired Marine / Pastor / Business Owner

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

I served in the Marine Corps for 21 years, four times in combat zones. My experiences taught me there are no Republicans or Democrats in a foxhole.

We need to stop the political party fighting and get things done.

We are Americans and Californians first. That's how I will serve as your Assemblyman: people over party.

When I retired from the military, I watched too many of my fellow Marines die by suicide. I became a pastor and worked to help servicemembers recover from what they experienced in combat.

Later, I opened a small business. Many nights, my wife and I worried about how to pay the bills. You see, we have four children, and one is severely mentally and physically disabled. We take care of him every day, and wouldn't have it any other way.

Here is the truth: the politicians in Sacramento are making our lives harder. People struggle, yet they raise taxes on gas and make food, housing, and our daily needs more expensive. I'll vote to lower prices so it's easier to live a middle-class life.

Our schools are failing. Students are not learning the basics to get good jobs and are threatened with violence. I'll vote to ensure students get the best education and that our schools are safe.

The politicians in Sacramento are messing with you: your jobs and your family. I'll be on your side every time. When there is trouble, send in a Marine!

EDISON GOMEZ-KRAUSS AGE: 36
OCCUPATION: Medical Interpreter / Musician
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

My name is Edison. I am a medical interpreter from Anza, working primarily with neurodivergent children and the elderly in the Desert region. Outside of my professional work, I am also a recording artist, which allows me to express my creativity and connect with others through the arts. Music is a language too.

I believe our tax dollars should fund education, not endless war. As Benjamin Franklin once said, "An investment in knowledge pays the best interest."

As a trustee, I will advocate for the expansion of vocational training and educational services to rural communities and Native populations, ensuring that all students have access to the opportunities they need to achieve their goals.

Sylva for MSJC! During my time on the MSJC Board, we have improved our financial stability, increased our student population, compensated our bargaining units and completed many facilities projects, all while enhancing the taxpayers' investment in the college.

As our enrollment surges across multiple areas, the MSJC Board continues to prioritize our students. Providing multiple instructional options, namely: face-to-face or hybrid or online.
