Election REMINDER

Elections in California

There are two different types of primary elections in California. The results of the primary election determine the candidates who will run in the general election in November. The types of primary elections are:

Presidential (Party-Nominated/Partisan Office)

- Office on the ballot: U.S. President
- Who can vote: Only voters who registered with the same political party as the candidate (the Democratic, American Independent, and Libertarian parties allow voters who registered with no party preference to vote in their primary).
- Result: The candidate who moves on to the general election is the candidate nominated by their national political party and may not be the candidate that was elected by popular vote in the California primary election.

California Open Primary (Voter-Nominated Offices)

- Offices on the ballot: U.S. Senate, U.S. House of Representatives, statewide offices, and state legislative offices
- Who can vote: Any voter may vote for any one candidate in each contest, regardless of party preference.
- Result: The top-two candidates, regardless of party preference, who receive the most votes in each primary contest move on to the general election. After a top-two primary, a general election must be held even if one candidate receives a majority of the vote (at least 50 percent +1) and even if there is only one candidate in the primary election.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President, County Central Committee, or local offices. Non-partisan offices (such as judges, county supervisors, city council members, and school board members) remain open to all eligible voters.

Elections in California

The Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act requires that all candidates for a voter-nominated office be listed on the same ballot. Previously known as partisan offices, voter-nominated offices include state legislative offices, U.S. congressional offices, and state constitutional offices.

In both the open primary and general elections, you can vote for any candidate regardless of what party preference you indicated on your voter registration form. In the primary election, the two candidates receiving the most votes—regardless of party preference—move on to the general election. If a candidate receives a majority of the vote (at least 50 percent +1), a general election still must be held.

California's open primary system does not apply to candidates running for U.S. President, county central committee, or local offices.

Write-in candidates for voter-nominated offices can still run in the primary election. However, a write-in candidate can only move on to the general election if the candidate is one of the top two vote-getters in the primary election. Additionally, there is no independent nomination process for a general election.

Superintendent of Public Instruction is a nonpartisan office. If a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction were to receive a majority of the vote (at least 50 percent +1) at the primary election, then that candidate would be elected, and no general election would be held. Additional information on nonpartisan offices can be found below.

California law requires the following information to be printed in this guide.

Party-Nominated/Partisan Offices

Political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A nominated candidate will represent that party as its official candidate for the specific office at the general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election moves on to the general election. Parties also elect officers of county central committees at the primary election.

A voter can only vote in the primary election of the political party he or she has disclosed a preference for upon registering to vote. However, a political party may allow a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote in that party's primary election.

Voter-Nominated Offices

Political parties are not entitled to formally nominate candidates for voter-nominated offices at the primary election. A candidate nominated for a voter-nominated office at the primary election is the nominee of the people and not the official nominee of any party at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a voter-nominated office shall have his or her qualified party preference, or lack of qualified party preference, stated on the ballot, but the party preference designation is selected solely by the candidate and is shown for the information of the voters only. It does not mean the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party designated, or that there is an affiliation between the party and candidate, and no candidate nominated by the voters shall be deemed to be the officially nominated candidate of any political party. In the county Voter Information Guide, parties may list the candidates for voter-nominated offices who have received the party's official endorsement.

Any voter may vote for any candidate for a voter-nominated office, if they meet the other qualifications required to vote for that office. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the voter-nominated office even if both candidates have specified the same party preference designation. No party is entitled to have a candidate with its party preference designation move on to the general election, unless the candidate is one of the two highest vote-getters at the primary election.

Nonpartisan Offices

Political parties are not entitled to nominate candidates for nonpartisan offices at the primary election, and a candidate at the primary election is not the official nominee of any party for the specific office at the general election. A candidate for nomination to a nonpartisan office may not designate his or her party preference, or lack of party preference, on the ballot. The top two vote-getters at the primary election move on to the general election for the nonpartisan office.

HOW TO USE THIS SAMPLE BALLOT

1. POLITICAL PARTY PREFERENCE: If you are not sure about your political party preference, look at the front of this booklet or at the address label on the back cover. You may also check your political party preference on our website at www.voteinfo.net or by calling (951) 486-7200. If you chose a political party preference when registering to vote you will be issued an official ballot which will include that political party's U.S. Presidential and central committee candidates. Voter-Nominated and Nonpartisan contests will also be included.
2. NO PARTY PREFERENCE AND NONPARTISAN: If you did not indicate a political party preference or you registered with an unqualified political party, then you will be issued the No Party Preference / Nonpartisan ballot. Your ballot will include congressional, state legislative, and nonpartisan contests, not U.S. Presidential Candidates. However, for this election, three parties are allowing cross over voting for their Presidential Candidates. You may request one of the following ballots:

American Independent Party

Democratic Party

Libertarian Party

3. PARTISAN OFFICES IN THE SAMPLE BALLOT

Look at the sample ballot pages that follow. Find the sample ballot pages for the appropriate political party, in order to review your official ballot choices for partisan offices. If you are a no party preference voter and you choose to vote the nonpartisan ballot, you will not find any of the presidential candidates on your ballot.

4. VOTER-NOMINATED AND NONPARTISAN SAMPLE BALLOT PAGES

All voters are eligible to vote on the voter-nominated and nonpartisan portion of the ballot. Following the party sample ballot pages are the voter-nominated and nonpartisan offices, and state and local propositions and measures. The exact issues and offices on your ballot correspond to the location of your residence address, according to what jurisdictions have seats to fill and/or questions to ask.

HOW TO MARK YOUR PAPER BALLOT

Please refer to the following instructions on how to properly complete your Official Ballot:

- Completely fill in the oval next to your choice, like the example provided. Check both front and back of ballot for voting contests.
- Use a black ink pen or marker. Do not use red ink.
- Completely filling in the oval is preferred.
- Vote for no more than the number of votes allowed in each contest (e.g., vote for one, vote for no more than two, etc.).
- Please keep the ballot folded the same way as you received it.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

DR. GRACE WILLIAMS, Democratic
OCCUPATION: Doctor / Economic Developer
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

I'm a U.S. Army veteran, a second-generation immigrant, a small business owner and working mom. I grew up in poverty before attending the University of Southern California to study civil engineering. I've worked in community and economic development for 20 years and around the March Air Reserve Base for over 10 years with the March JPA where I managed projects related to housing for homeless veterans, healthcare, commercial and industrial developments. I've brought over $25 million in public and federal funds to our congressional district for new infrastructure and job training programs. In 2018, under my leadership, the City of Perris won a $5.5 million federal grant to build a skills training and job placement center where residents, veterans and disabled workers can be certified in welding, advanced manufacturing and nursing. Our district plays an important role in the nation's economy but the federal government continues to ignore what communities need locally. I'm running for Congress to bring federal attention to our region to address issues like poverty, homelessness, education, mental and behavioral health, public-private partnerships for small businesses and economic development. Our district deserves a leader like me in Congress who's invested in the future of our youth and the strength of our military base, residents, veterans and business owners. EDUCATION: Doctorate in Policy, Planning + Development (USC); M.S., Organizational Leadership + Management (University of La Verne); B.S., Urban Planning with Civil Engineering emphasis (USC); WEBSITE: www.drgraceforcongress.com; PHONE: 951-416-0033.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR
UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE,
41ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

MARK TAKANO, Democratic
OCCUPATION: United States Representative / Teacher
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Dear Neighbor,

Since being elected to Congress, I've worked tirelessly to support the hard-working communities of Riverside County.

As your Representative, I have expanded access to healthcare for veterans, defended immigrant communities, worked to create high-paying jobs in the Inland Empire, and protected Social Security and Medicare. I have also held the Trump Administration accountable and have fought back against their dangerous policies.

My office has returned more than $4 million in federal dollars that were owed to members of our community. I introduced legislation to strengthen our public schools, make college more affordable, rein in the for-profit college industry, and I have supported local projects to spark economic growth, including the Perris Downtown Skills Training and Job Placement Center. Additionally, legislation I introduced to extend benefits to Blue Water Navy Vietnam veterans became law.

I will continue to work for our community by promoting investments in local job creators, supporting comprehensive immigration reform, and opposing tax cuts for billionaires and corporations.

Before Congress, I dedicated my life to public service as a high school teacher and Riverside Community College Trustee. Those roles prepared me to be an effective advocate for local schools, businesses, veterans, seniors, our military, and middle-class families.

I am proud to have the support of local leaders from throughout Riverside, Moreno Valley, Jurupa Valley, and Perris.

I respectfully ask for your vote so we can continue to grow our economy, stand up for our American values, and move our country forward.

CANDIDATE STATEMENT FOR MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY,
61ST ASSEMBLY DISTRICT

JOSE MEDINA, Democratic
OCCUPATION: Teacher / State Assemblymember
EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS:

AGE: 66

As a classroom teacher, school board member, and community college trustee, I witnessed the harm caused by budget cuts and negative impacts of bad decisions made by state politicians who ignored the needs of our communities. That's why I decided to run for the State Assembly.

Thanks to strong community support, I've been a strong advocate for our region and delivered positive results for Riverside County families, students, and seniors.

During my first term in the Legislature, I worked hard to help clean up the state's finances and stop budget cuts that hurt local schools and families.

We've delivered balanced budgets seven years in a row, paid down the state debt, improved California's credit rating, and established a budget reserve fund with $19 billion in savings to prevent future budget cuts.

As Chair of the Assembly Higher Education Committee, I am pleased to report that we've invested in K-12 schools and colleges, mental health programs, housing, financial aid, and enrollment — and secured funding for UC Riverside's Medical School.

We've also expanded local job-training programs, created affordable housing for seniors and veterans, and delivered Riverside County's fair share of state funding for schools, transportation projects, and renewable energy.

Together, we've made progress but there's more to do to keep California moving forward.

With your support, I'll keep fighting to deliver positive results and new opportunities so everyone in Riverside County has the opportunity to succeed.

Please join teachers, firefighters, nurses, and the Democratic Party in supporting my campaign.

Conditional Voter Registration

Did you forget to register or update your voter registration? No Problem! A new law allows you to register to vote and vote until 8:00 p.m. on Election Day at your county elections office or at any vote center or polling place in your county. This process is called Conditional Voter Registration (CVR) and is commonly referred to as Same Day Voter Registration. Here's how it works:

1. Visit the Registrar of Voters office located at 2720 Gateway Drive, Riverside, CA 92507.
2. Complete a voter registration card or register online at RegisterToVote.ca.gov.
3. Vote your ballot at your county elections office, vote center, or polling place.
4. Once the county elections official processes your registration and determines you are eligible, you will be registered to vote and your ballot will be counted.

To learn more about Conditional Voter Registration, visit vote.ca.gov.

If you have questions regarding Conditional Voter Registration, please call (951) 486-7200 or toll free (800) 773-VOTE (8683).

You may check the status of your voter registration at www.voteinfo.net/AmIRegistered.

California Motor Voter

The California Motor Voter program is making registering to vote at the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) more convenient and secure. All eligible individuals completing driver license or ID card or change of address transactions at the DMV will be registered to vote with the California Secretary of State unless they "opt out" of automatic voter registration.

The California Motor Voter program applies to Californians who are 18 years or older and meet the following criteria:

- A United States citizen and a resident of California.
- Not currently in state or federal prison or on parole for the conviction of a felony.
- Not currently found mentally incompetent to vote by a court.

Note: Voter pre-registration is available for those 16 and 17 years of age. Their voter registration will become active automatically when they turn 18.

Before visiting a DMV field office, we recommend making an appointment. Visit <https://www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/dmv/detail/portal/foa/>. You can also use DMV online services (<https://www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/dmv/dmv/online/vcs>) to renew your driver license or ID card or change your address.

If you indicate you're eligible to vote, once you complete your driver license or state ID renewal form transaction online, by mail or in person at the DMV, your voter information is then transmitted securely and electronically to the California Secretary of State.

Please note that drivers with an AB 60 driver's license are not eligible to participate in the California Motor Voter program and are not eligible to vote.

Tips for California's Military and Overseas Voters

Taking part in elections is more convenient than ever for Californians serving in the military or living outside the United States. It begins when you register to vote as a military or overseas voter and receive election materials by mail, fax, or email.

- Start early. California's county elections officials begin sending ballots to military and overseas voters 60 days before Election Day. Fill out a voter registration application early at RegisterToVote.ca.gov to ensure that you receive your voting materials in time.
- Know your options. When registering to vote as a military or overseas voter, you can choose to have your ballot mailed, faxed, or emailed to you. You may return your voted ballot to your county elections official by mail or, in certain circumstances, by fax. If you meet the requirements to return your ballot by fax, you must also fax the Oath of Voter form (available from your county elections official) waiving your right to a confidential ballot.
- Stay in touch. Once you register as a military or overseas voter, you will continue to receive a ballot and election materials from your county elections official before each election. We encourage you to update your registration each year, if needed; however, you must re-register to vote if you change your address, your name, or your political party preference, or if you do not participate in four consecutive statewide general elections. Visit www.sos.ca.gov/elections/voter-registration/military-overseas-voters/ for more election resources designed especially for you.

Dates to remember:

February 18: last day to register to vote and request your ballot

February 25: last day to update or change how you want to receive your ballot

March 3: Election Day. Mailed ballots must be postmarked on or before Election Day and received by your county elections office no later than March 6. Faxed ballots must be delivered to your county elections office by close of polls, no later than 8:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time, on Election Day.
